S.O. 2562.—In pursuance of sub-section (4) of section 3 of the Mica Mines Labour Welfare Fund Act, (22 of 1946), the Central Government hereby publishes the following report of the activities financed from the Mica Mines Labour Welfare Fund for the year ending the 31st March 1960 together with a statement of accounts for that year and an estimate of receipts and expenditure of the fund for the year 1960-61.

PART I

Activities in Andhra Pradesh

Medical Facilities.—A fourteen-bedded base hospital at Kalchedu started functioning. The Fund continued to maintain three static dispensaries, one having an in-patient ward of nine beds. The mobile dispensary visited mines and other labour colonies beyond a radius of three miles from the static dispensaries. The medical officers, in addition to their normal work, trained eighty-nine mica miners in first-aid.

Four Maternity and Child Welfare Centres continued to be maintained. Three beds continued to be reserved in the District Headquarters Hospital, Nellore, for the exclusive use of mica miners and their families. Eight beds were also reserved in the State Government T.B. Hospital, Nellore. Travelling expenses of those mica miners who were treated as out-patients in the T.B. Hospital, Nellore, were met by the Fund.

Educational Facilities.—Six elementary schools continued to function. There was also one middle school. Mid-day meals and dresses were provided to the children of mica mines studying in these schools. Free supply of books and slates was also made to the children of mica miners studying in the six elementary schools and in three private schools.

In two of the elementary schools run by the Fund, the children were taught handicrafts like tape weaving, stitching, knitting and embroidery. Tape weaving was taught to children in all other schools also.

Scholarships were granted to the children of mica miners studying in higher elementary schools, secondary schools and colleges.

Two boarding homes were run by the Fund for giving board and lodging facilities to the children of mica miners.

Adult education and recreation.—One community centre functioned under the Fund. Men labourers were taught carpentry. Women labourers were coached in spinning, stitching, knitting and embroidery. Ten recreation clubs and nine radio centres were also maintained. Annual sports were conducted as usual.

Housing and Other Facilities.—The New Subsidized Housing Scheme was sanctioned. Under this scheme, the mine owners who construct miners' quarters in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the Fund will get subsidy equal to 50% of the cost of construction of houses, with certain ceiling limits.

A well was constructed from the resources of the Fund and work on another was in progress. Four wells were also sunk under the Subsidised Wells Scheme. Under this scheme, the mine owners who sink wells in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the Fund are entitled to get subsidy equal to 75% of the cost of construction of the well subject to a maximum of Rs. 7,500/- per well.

Small Savings.—A sum of about Rs. 30,000/- was invested by mica miners in small savings.

Financial Assistance.—Financial assistance at the rate of Rs. 10/- per month, for a period of two years, was granted to the widows of two labourers who died in mine accidents.

Enforcement of Welfare Measures.—The two Welfare Inspectors and the Secretary were appointed ex-officio Inspectors of Mines under the Mines Act, 1952, to enforce the non-technical provisions of the Act on the surface.

PART II

Activities in Bihar

Medical Facilities.—The Central Hospital, Karma, six dispensaries, three mobile medical units and two maternity and child welfare centres continued to provide medical facilities. The outdoor section of the 15-bedded Regional Hospital at Tisri was opened during the year. Two Ayurvedic dispensaries were also opened.

Ten beds continued to be reserved at the Birla T.B. Sanatorium, Ranchi, for the exclusive use of mica miners and their families. Financial help was also given to the dependents of those mica miners who were suffering from T.B., and who were undergoing treatment in the T.B. ward attached to the Central Hospital, Karma, and in the T.B. Sanatorium, Ranchi.

As in the preceding year, anti-malaria spraying was done during the year.

Educational and Recreational Facilities.—Two Community Centres continued to function during the year. They imparted primary education to the miners' children and conducted literary classes for adults.

Three scholarships for general education @ Rs. 20 p.m., and seven scholarships for technical education @ Rs. 30 p.m., were awarded to the children of mica miners.

Six Multi-purpose Centres, each composed of a women's welfare section and an adult education section, continued to function.

The two Mobile Cinema Units continued to entertain mica miners. The number of shows held during the year was 477.

Zonal competitive sports were held at ten different places, on the completion of which, the fourth Annual Central Sports were held at Karma. Thirty-three mica miners were sent out on excursion-cum-study tour (Bharat Darshan) enabling them to visit places of historical and religious importance.

Housing and Other Welfare Facilities.—The New Subsidized Housing Scheme was sanctioned. Under this scheme, the mine owners who construct miners' quarters in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the Fund will get subsidy equal to 50% of the cost of construction of houses, with certain ceiling limits.

Financial Assistance.—Financial assistance of Rs. 10 p.m. was given to the widows of four mica miners who were killed as a result of accidents in mines.

PART III

Activities in Rajasthan

Medical Facilities.—Five static dispensaries continued to cater to the medical needs of mica miners and their families. The medical staff also visited the adjoining mines and villages for treatment of serious cases and for propaganda on prevention of diseases. There were five mobile medical units to serve mining areas located at a distance from the static dispensaries. Eight maternity and child welfare centres continued to function. Children up to twelve years of age were given milk in these centres daily.

Educational and Recreational Facilities.—One middle school and three primary schools continued to function. The students were given free education and were supplied with slates, books and pencils. They were also given free mid-day meals. Scholarships were awarded to nineteen students. Attention was paid to the spread of literacy among the illiterate workers. Five reading rooms and two libraries were maintained. Hindi daily newspapers and other periodicals were made available in three welfare centres. Knitting and sewing classes were conducted at five welfare centres.

All the welfare centres organised recreational activities. Outdoor and indoor games were conducted at all sub-centres and at important mines.

The mobile cinema paid regular visits to the important mining areas and exhibited social and religious films free of charge.

Celebration of functions.—Functions were organised on the occasion of Holi, Diwali, Ramnavmi, Pratap Jayanti, Independence Day, Maha-Shivaratri, etc. Baby shows, sports and games competitions, health and safety exhibitions, cultural programmes and prize distributions were the main features of these functions.
